

Women in Defense Central Florida (WID CFL) Scholarship Program

Women in Defense Central Florida Chapter (WID CFL), under the auspices of Women in Defense, A National Security Organization, established their Scholarship Program to encourage women in Florida to pursue careers in defense and national security to help protect and defend the United States.

WID CFL is pleased to announce our 2020 scholarship program, with awards ranging from $500 - $1000 for high-performing women careers either in National Security OR a STEM-related field. Applicants must submit completed applications with all required information no later than 11:59 pm EST on Monday, March 16, 2020.

WID CFL will present awards on April 23, 2020 at the Orlando Science Center during the WID CFL Annual Scholarship Award Event. Please stay posted to www.cfl-wid.org for information on further details.

Applicants must meet the following criteria with no exceptions or waivers.

- Be a female residing in Central Florida
- Be a high school senior, undergraduate or graduate student currently enrolled in or accepted to a regionally accredited university or college, full-time or part-time
- Demonstrate a minimum grade point average of 3.0 by submitting a current transcript from an accepted educational institution
